NATIONAL SUPPLY MEN UNITE TO AID 'NANCY'

Proof that Torrance workers do not forget a friend will be in evidence Saturday evening, June 25, when a "Nancy, Get Well" dance will be held at the American Legion clubhouse.

Sponsored by the Graduate Machinists of National Supply Co., Apprentice Group, the dance will be held for the benefit of brave, little Nancy McCullough, five-year-old victim of the dreaded disease—nephrosis.

Nancy is the daughter of Robert McCullough, former worker at National Supply. Hundreds of people throughout Los Angeles have opened their hearts and pocketbooks for Nancy following publicity of the tot's plight in a Los Angeles newspaper.

Meanwhile little Nancy prepared for another injection of an expensive blood serum which had added to the staggering hospital expenses incurred the last few months by the former Torrance resident.

Some 200 ampule bottles of the serum for Nancy have been sent by the Red Cross to White Memorial Hospital, Los Angeles, where the youngster is fighting for her life.

SQUARE DANCES TO CONTINUE

By popular request the St. Cecilia's Guild-sponsored square dances in Parish House have been continued during the summer months. Next party will begin at 8 p.m. Wednesday, June 22. A 50 cent donation will be accepted by the hostesses, Carolyn Staples or Janie Evans.

Kay Davis, popular caller for these dances, has again agreed to serve. Everyone is invited.

Torch Glows With Gold Rush Theme

Thirty-two Torrance High School students last week sat back, heaved a sigh of relief, and watched the rest of the student body go wild.

The 32 were THS annual "staffers" who had worked a year long on the 112 page story of school days at Torrance High School.

Producing an annual is no easy job, according to attractive graduate Janet Lewellen, who with Anna Jane Kelly, was co-editor of the '49 "Torch."

From soliciting advertisements from 74 Torrance concerns, rounding up snap shots of school activities, making a trip to Knott's Berry Farm for special pictures and ideas to carry out the gold rush theme, being sure that they had individual pictures of the 144 graduating seniors, sponsoring dances—from all of this came the school's largest and most lavish annual, and perhaps national recognition for Torrance High School.

This recognition may follow from action taken last week by Elizabeth Griffin, high school journalism instructor and annual advisor, in entering the publication in a national contest in competition with other high school and college annuals.

The contest which will be based on the editorial, photographic, and art content also will take into consideration the problems in producing the annual, as set down in a letter by the staff.

Editors of the annual included Rose Rosenberg, business manager; Don Gazely; pictures: Pauline Ban, classes; Marie Atkins LeRoy, social; Gary Dawson, sports; Tamatsu Fujiwara and Ginger Shew, art; and Beverly Moore, makeup.

Former Council Member's Sister Passes in Sleep

Services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Stone & Myers Chapel for Mrs. Clara Buxton Tyson, 82, who passed away in her sleep yesterday morning at a Compton hospital. Rev. U. S. Schauer, pastor of United Brethren Evangelical Church, will officiate.

Mrs. Tyson has resided for six and a half years at 1515 Arlington avenue, her home adjoining that of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bronson C. Buxton, 1500 El Prado. She was born in Oberlin, Ohio, but spent most of her adult life in Falls Church, Va.

Mrs. Tyson was a member of the United Brethren Evangelical Church, and active in the work of its Woman's Guild.

Following the services the remains will be shipped to Falls Church for graveside services and interment. She will be laid to rest beside her husband, Andrew H. Tyson, who predeceased her.

Survivors are her brothers, Bronson C. Buxton, Torrance; Harrison Hall Buxton, Utica, N.Y.; and Charles Burtram Buxton, of Los Angeles.
